You could have an exciting career with the CHP!

The California Highway Patrol (CHP) is hosting a "Women in Law Enforcement Seminar" to reach out to women who are interested in diversity, challenges, and opportunities. The Central Division Recruitment Unit invites you to attend this seminar to learn how to become a part of their professional organization. This seminar will provide information from diversified women in the Department, ranging from the level of Officer to Lieutenant, relaying valuable information and tools to women motivated to initiate and complete the hiring process.
